

General English I, Quiz, Winter 1399

A. Vocabulary & Grammar

Read the following sentences carefully and decide which choice best completes the meaning of the sentence.

1. Doctors ----- following dietary guidelines as an appropriate way to achieve a positive outcome.
a. emerge b. precede c. prevent d. advocate

2. Different specialized care centers, clinics and psychiatric care centers are available in that health -----.
a. facility b. variation c. intervention d. crisis

3. The dermatologist fully explained that exposure to the sun can ----- the aging process.
a. train b. vocalize c. afford d. accelerate

4. That company provides excellent working conditions to its employees. They have flexible working hours. -----, they can choose to work from office or home, get 10% discount on whatever they buy and have eight weeks of parental leave.
a. In spite of b. In addition c. Regarding d. However

5. Which of the following is correct grammatically (considering punctuation)?
When his school is over, -----.
a. he will buy three things; a mobile, a wrist watch and a laptop
b. he will buy three things “a mobile, a wrist watch and a laptop”
c. he will buy three things: a mobile, a wrist watch and a laptop
d. he will buy three things- a mobile, a wrist watch and a laptop

B. Word Forms. Choose the correct form of the words.

6. Not taking the necessary safety precautions when working in a laboratory can be so dangerous as to lead to getting a ----- disease.
a. dying b. deadly c. death d. dead

7. Those beliefs still ----- among certain social groups throughout the world.
a. prevalent b. prevailing c. prevail d. prevalence
8. It was very ----- of her to thank all her professors in the graduation ceremony.
a. think b. thought c. thoughtfully d. thoughtful

C. Reading Comprehension. Read the following passage carefully and choose the best option on your answer sheet.

The future of human societies depends on children being able to achieve their optimal physical growth and psychological development. Never before has there been so much knowledge to assist families and societies in their desire to raise children to meet their potential. Combined growth and development interventions that help families practice “responsive parenting” have the potential to promote better psychological development, as well as physical growth.

9. According to the author, the interventions which help parents perform responsive parenting ----- .
a. may result from enhanced psychological development
b. may potentially lead to better physical growth
c. neither influence physical growth nor psychological development
d. might prevent parents from paying attention to the vital needs of their children
10. According to the text, parents -----.
a. are supposed to have fewer children to raise them well
b. have less access to resources for child growth
c. mostly know more about psychology these days
d. relied on their children in the past 11. It is indirectly mentioned that children -----.
a. did not have any potential in the past
b. have more achievements these days
c. could not reach maturity in the past
d. are more annoying nowadays 12. In which of the following sentences does meet have the same meaning as in the passage.
a. That nation is having trouble meeting its goals.
b. Meet me when you stop by this afternoon.
c. They promised to meet before winter comes.
d. If you are not well-prepared, you may meet lots of problems.